ORDER

The court, having reviewed the pleadings on file in this cause and the nature of the proceedings herein, has determined that this case is appropriate for a form of alternative dispute resolution known as mediation. See Rules 1, 16, FED. R. CIV. P.; 28 U.S.C. § 473(a)(6), (b)(4); Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan of the Northern District of Texas ¶ III (1993); Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code §§ 154.001 et seq. (Vernon Supp. 1997).

Mediation is a mandatory but non-binding settlement conference wherein the parties attempt to resolve their differences with the assistance of a third party facilitator: the mediator. All proceedings in a mediation session are confidential and privileged from discovery. No subpoenas, summons, citations, or other process shall be served at or near the location of any mediation session, upon any person entering, leaving, or attending any mediation session.

The parties will be contacted by Jeffrey H. Abrams, ABRAMS MEDIATION & ARBITRATION, 4901 LBJ Freeway, Suite 150, Dallas, Texas 75248 (972.702.9066, FAX 214.526.5880, Email: jeff@abramsmediation.com), a qualified mediator who will provide further information and will arrange scheduling of the mediation session. Within the next 30 days, the parties shall agree with the mediator on a date on which the mediation can be held. If no agreed date can be scheduled, then the mediator shall, within the next 30 days, select a date and all parties shall appear as directed by the mediator. Following the mediation, the court will be advised only that the case did or did not settle.

The parties shall make independent arrangements for payment of fees for the mediation. The costs of mediation are to be divided and borne equally by the parties unless agreed otherwise. The named parties shall be present during the entire mediation process and each party which is not a natural person must be represented by an executive officer (other than in-house counsel) with authority to negotiate a settlement (the authority required shall be active, i.e., not merely the authority to observe the mediation proceedings but the authority to negotiate, demand or offer, and bind the party represented). Counsel and the parties shall proceed in a good faith effort to try to resolve this case.

Referral to alternative dispute resolution is not a substitute for trial, however, and the case will be tried if not settled.

The mediator is directed by the court to complete the attached Alternative Dispute Resolution Summary Form and file it with the clerk of court within ten (10) days after the mediation session is completed.

Failure to comply in good faith with the requirements of this order may result in the imposition of sanctions. See Rule 16(f), F.R. Civ. P.
